

Swahili Sets

Swahili is the official language of Tanzania, Africa.

This activity is a three-part puzzle set: one word is in Swahili, one is in English, and the third piece is blank so that participants can either draw in the meaning or find a photo that corresponds with the other two words.

After filling in the blank pieces, cut all of them out, mix them up in a pile, and then find the matching sets.

In conjunction with BECAUSE OF KHALID
by Carolyn Armstrong

Hakuna Matata

No Worries

Mambo?

What's up?

Poa.

It's cool.

Asante Sana

Thank you very much

